NO FORGIVENESS

But Mrs. "Jack" Geraghty Is Just as Happy as Bride Can Be.

TALKS OF SOCIETY WOMEN

Thinks Miss Force Very Foolish to Marry Colonel Astor.

Writes Letter to Mother

"Dear Mamma,—I am very sorry that I have caused you all this worry, but I will never regret marrying 'Jack' to the last day of my life. I love him better than anything in the world, and I would rather live in a dog kennel with him than in some palace with a society fool.

"By that time I knew I was in love cwith the kid, and one day I got a chance to tell her about it, and she fessed up to me that it was mutual, and we began to build some air castles. I'm not the sort of chap whod take advantage of a kid who mightn't washwoman's at 4 o'clock. The folks had all her clothes packed ready for the ship except a few things which she put in a handbag, and took to fee washwoman's in her phaeton. I followed the phaeton in a touring car, and off we went."

CUTS HER WITH RAZOR

Elisha Colemin Stasher Nannte Brown For Coming Home Late.

Nannie Brown, colored, who lives in Fulton, failed to return home early enough last night, and Elisha Coleman, whom she is said to have supported through an illness, angered at her tardiness, slashed her with a razor. He cut her under the arm on the right side, the wound extending downwards for eight inches and penetrating into the lung. The woman was in a precarious condition when Dr. Watts, of the city ambulance, arrived He took thirty stifches in the wound, working over the voman for nearly two hours. She was in too serious a condition to be moved, and did not want to go to the City Hospital, and so was left at home. She is expected to recover. Coleman was arrested a short time later.

Headquarters in Brooklyn Goods From Richmond Are Found.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York. August 12.—Brooklyn detectives believe that with the arrest of "Benjamin Silver," for whom a gen eral alarm has been sent out, they will have captured the leader of a systematic shoplifting band that has rob bed the department stores of this and other cities of tens of thousands of other cities of tens of thousands of dollars' worth of goods.

In Silver's quarters, 316 Bainbridge Street, Brooklyn, which were raided on Friday, were found thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise and silverware. Wrappers showed that the goods came from Toronto, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Boston, Buffalo, Baltimore and Richmond.

The discovery of the goods came as a result of the arrest in Boston of two women, who are believed to be employed of Silver. The women are Philadelphia, Boston, Buffalo, and Anna Kraft, twenty-eight." Both gave fictitious addresses. The two women were accused of making away with finery in three Boston stores. Detectives in Boston discovered that the two women had last Thursday shipped a suit case to "Benjamin Silver, 358 Bainbridge Street, Brooklyn."

The Boston authorities communicated with Brooklyn, and the raid followed Silver, however, had gotten wind of the turn events had taken, and left for parts unknown.
